Trade agreements were made with the EU, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan and Vietnam. Negotiations with Mexico and China are still ongoing – the US granted Mexico a 90-day reprieve on higher tariffs to allow more time for negotiations, while with China, it extended the deadline to 12 August to come to an agreement. Investor sentiment was also buoyed by an improved growth outlook as Congress passed a more expansionary version of Trump's One Big Beautiful Bill Act than initially proposed. The Fund underperformed over the month. Novo Nordisk was among the main laggards. Their view on Novo has turned more negative following its recent results.
